

On the Campus.

A. L. PRICE, '04.

Tune: The Low-Backed Car.

'Tis morn - ing on the camp - us, The 'Tis af - ter - noon on camp - us, The 'Tis eve - ning on the camp - us, And sun is out a bit; The sky is blue and a team is on the line; The bleach - ers call to the we are sen - iors all; We sit and sing and our gold - en hue The heart of man has lit. Yet still we must to punt - ed ball; The play is dashed with wine; And so we must sit cares we fling from steps of old North Hall. We sing to Cal - i - lec - tures go, To law or chem or trig If out and cheer For men in foot - ball rig If for - ni - a Our col - lege brave and big If we're not there it shows we care for our stu - dies not a we're not there, it shows we care for our col - lege - not a you're not there, it proves you care for your col - lege not a fig: But the sun has be - gun to glow — And fig: So let's cheer for the Blue and Gold, Our fig: So come sing on the steps with me In an we have be - gun to know That to get a de - gree Is a play - ers for - ev - er bold We will yell for the men; And a ev' - ning of jol - li - ty Let your stu - dies go hang, But be rall. fri - vol - i - ty, When the sun has be - gun to glow.

a tempo. gain and a - gain, Give an "Os - ki" for Blue and Gold.
rall. ad lib. strong with the gang And sing on the steps with me.
rall. a tempo. rall. ad lib.