

Romeo and Juliet

Solo

Come new and lis - ten to my tale of woe
I am the he - ro of this lit - tle tale
I am the her - oine of this tale of woe
This of my tale is the short and the long

Of Rom - e - o and Ju - li - et Cribbed out of Shakespeare and I'm Rom - e - o I'm Rom - e - o I am the ver - y sus - I'm Ju - li - et I'm Ju - li - et I am the la - dy who Of Rom - e - o and Ju - li - et This is the mor - al of reck - ing with woe Oh Rom - e - o and Ju - li - et ceep - ti - ble male I'm Rom - e - o I'm Rom - e - o

"mashed" Rom - e - o I'm Ju - li - et I'm Ju - li - et my lit - tle song Of Rom - e - o and Ju - li - et Nev - er was sto - ry so mourn - ful as that one Ne'er did a lov - er — dare do as I did Locked in the pri - son no pick - axe to force it Lov - ers I warn you — al - ways be wa - ry

If you have tears now pre - pare to get at one Rom - eo's the thin one and When his best girl to e - ter - ni - ty slid - ed I took cold poi - son and Nas - ty old hole, scarcee room to stand or sit I up and stabbed myself Dont buy your drinks of an a - poth - e - ca - ry Dont stab yourself in the Ju - liet's the fat one Oh Rom - e - o and Ju - li - et I su - i - cid - ed I'm Rom - e - o I'm Rom - e - o right thro' the cor - set I'm Ju - li - et I'm Ju - li - et left pul - mo - na - ry Like Rom - e - o and Ju - li - et